

With a great many experience in heart

Fully perceiving the surroundings

As a brand with profound knowledge on traditional Chinese culture, MATSU has incorporated the most illustrative mountain and water scenes into modern office furniture and launched its classic work-executive desk designed as per Oriental philosophy and art.

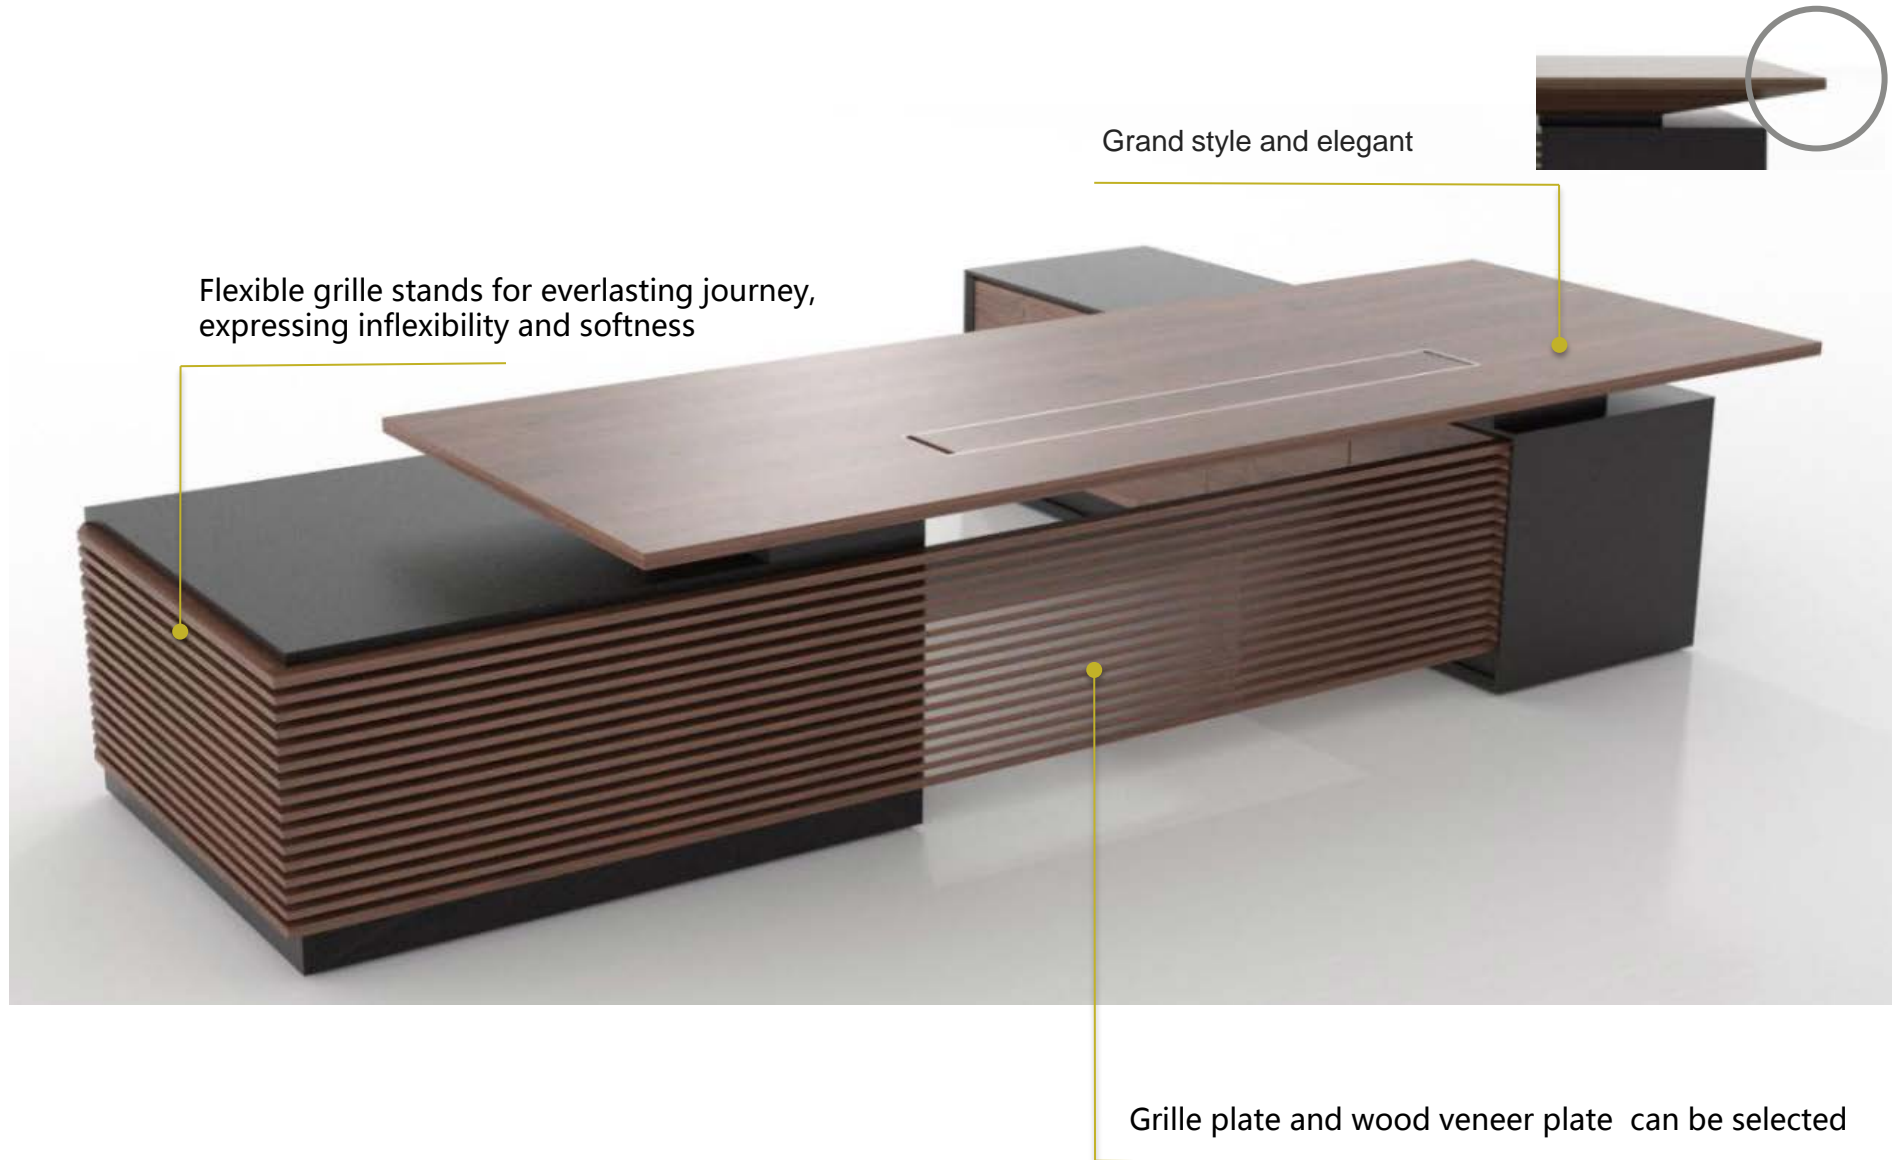

Benevolence and Beauty in Mountains & Rivers

The “Ren” (Benevolence) Executive Desk which embodies the core of Confucianism and the prevailing moral standard in China reflects the explanations on the six techniques of Chinese painting Huapin. An Oriental design language is created by combining the techniques of “shape, strengthen of stroke, style and color” and modern technologies to showcase the viability and charm of traditional Chinese culture.
